

Code of Conduct for ASHS Volunteers

CORE VALUE STATEMENT

The Australian Stock Horse Society exists to:

- promote the development and acceptance of the Australian Stock Horse as an equine breed of excellence and importance;
- provide service to all facets of the Australian Stock Horse industry;
- guarantee that the welfare of the Australian Stock Horse is protected at all times; and
- ensure that all individual members of the Society, and those who serve as Directors, Breeders, Competitors, Coaches, Judges, Stewards and Volunteers act with honesty and integrity in all of their dealings with the Society, other members, clients and the public at large.

UNDERTAKINGS

- Members of the Australian Stock Horse Society who serve as volunteers at any level of the society, be it Branch, State or National undertake that they will act in accordance with the core Value statement at all times.
- Members of the Australian Stock Horse Society who serve as volunteers at any level of the Society, be it Branch, State or National undertake that they will act in a manner which brings credit to the values and professional image of the Society.
- Members of the Australian Stock Horse Society who serve as volunteers at any level of the Society, be it Branch, State or National will endeavour to maintain their knowledge of the Society and of the Australian Stock Horse Breed and to set exemplary standards in behaviour by being polite and courteous to all with whom they come in contact.
- Members of the Australian Stock Horse Society who serve as volunteers at any level of the Society, be it Branch, State or National will at all times abide by the Rules and Regulations of the Society.

UNDERSTANDING

Volunteers make an invaluable contribution to the running of all activities of the Society. Together with the Competitors, they underpin the Society and its values. By accepting themselves as an integral part of the operations of the Society, and by undertaking to act with at the same level of integrity and honesty as all others in the Society, the Codes of Conduct will cover each and every person involved with the Society.
